

EYE OF THE DAY'S FATHER'S DAY GIFT GUIDE 2016

1. Troutman Rocking Chairs - Made in the USA, these rocking chairs are perfect for that afternoon siesta or catching the game in style
2. Gladding McBean Reclining Nude - Dad an art lover? This classic beauty is made right here in California.
3. Chivas Beer Soap - If you already love the Goat's Milk soap from Chivas, this line incorporates creamy ales. There might be some fights in the bathroom over these.
4. Succulents - The ladies usually get flowers but dads shouldn't miss out. Succulents aren't only beautiful, they'll last longer too!
5. Tula Palm Hats - A favorite for everyone. These Palm hats are perfect for the dad who likes to garden or just likes to look good in hats.

MADE IN CALIFORNIA - GLADDING McBEAN POTTERY

2. By the early 1890's the company had expanded its line to include fire brick, roof tile, chimney pipes and ornamental garden pottery.
3. An early clay roof tile project was Stanford University. To this day Gladding McBean continues to provide its signature clay tile to Stanford University for any campus additions, as well as residential and commercial projects.
4. The State of California Library now houses over 6,500 of Gladding McBean's late 19th and early 20th century job files which include correspondence as well as photographs of some of their most significant work.
5. The Gladding McBean plant in Lincoln, California covers 411 acres and is one of only two manufacturers of architectural clay products in the United States
6. Eye of the Day Garden Design Center is GMB's largest distributor.
